

SPORTS DAY IS TOMORROW MORNING Please arrive at 8.45am for a 9.15am start.

Although forecast to be slightly cooler than it has been, it is still expected to be hot and sunny. Please remember water bottles and ensure children have sunhats and suncream on. These events can be overwhelming for some children, so if your little one decides one race is enough, that's fine; the aim of the morning is for us all to have fun!

SUNFLOWERS

Well done to everyone who has successfully grown a sunflower from seed, and thank you for sending in your photos - here are just a few. We will be announcing the winners tomorrow morning.

RISERS

Next Monday will be our final Risers day of the year. We wish all our Risers the best of luck as they move on and are looking forward to celebrating with them.

TOILET TRAINING

ERIC the children's Bowel and Bladder Charity, has advice to help children become toilet-trained. "All Aboard the Toilet Train" aims to help children toilets independently. If your child is not yet toilet-trained, this summer could be the ideal time to do this. Parents and children are invited to 'board the Toilet Train'; it's fun with some lovely animations. Click eric.org.uk/all-aboard-the-toilet-train for more information and advice.
